Role and Mandate

Markham EAC is a dedicated group of volunteers who:

- educate and inform the public about the value and protection of the environment;
- provides advice to Council on environmental policy, planning and sustainability;
- promotes conservation and stewardship of the environment through outreach into the community;
- assists the Town of Markham in planning and implementing restoration and rehabilitation of natural areas;
- assists community groups with conservation activities in the Town of Markham. Projects undertaken should not overlap with the work of other committees/working groups and be consistent and support Town policy and initiatives.

General Conduct and Code of Ethics

Recognizing the importance of ethical conduct to the community and the corporation, a Committee member shall:

- put public interest above individual, group or social interests and consider this position as an opportunity to serve society;
- treat other Committee members and Town staff with respect and courtesy at all times;
- recognize that government service is a public trust that imposes responsibility to conserve public resources, funds and materials;
- never offer, give, or accept gifts, favours, services that might tend to influence the discharge of duties;

- never use the position to secure advantage;
- never disclose confidential information;
- declare a conflict of interest and withdraw from Committee participation on any matter that involves a direct or indirect personal financial interest
