Discussion Paper 9: Parking and Loading standards (cont'd)

Review Undertaken:

- Reviewed policies in the new Official Plan
- Reviewed current City zoning by-laws
- Reviewed past studies, documents and actions
- Reviewed standards of other municipalities
- Consulted with Markham staff and other experts in the field

Discussion Paper 9: Parking and Loading Standards (cont'd)

Issues:

- Parking standards prescribe the AMOUNT of parking and the DESIGN of parking facilities (dimensions, location and access)
- By-law 28-97 distinguishes 8 types of residential uses and 46 types of non-residential uses to which over 25 different parking ratios apply
- Markham's current parking standards are similar in style and substance to those of other municipalities that have not recently revised their standards

Discussion Paper 9: Parking and Loading Standards (cont'd)

Issues:

- Recent trends are for parking standards to be seen as an effective POLICY INSTRUMENT; no longer based only on demand
- Should bicycle parking requirements apply to new developments on a city-wide basis or only for selected areas?
- Should on-site loading facilities apply to multi-unit residential buildings for garbage trucks

Building Markham's Future Together
Journey to Excellence

Discussion Paper 9: Parking and Loading Standards (cont'd)

Options and Considerations:

- Consider varying parking ratios by area
- Consider blended parking ratios in mixed-use settings
- Consider maximum parking ratios, as in Markham Centre
- Revise parking ratios for apartment dwellings and places of worship

Discussion Paper 9: Parking and Loading Standards (cont'd)

Options and Considerations:

- Consider design requirements for aisle widths, prohibiting obstructions, prohibiting parking in rear yards and provisions for rear lane parking
- Consider bicycle parking requirements for appropriate locations and uses
- Consider a loading requirement for residential buildings with 30 or more dwelling units
- Consider applying loading requirements over a wider range of non-residential floor area sizes

Discussion Paper 16a: Medical Marihuana Production Facilities

Purpose:

To review and analyze the zoning by-law issues related to the growing and production of medical marihuana.

The image shows an aerial view of a large industrial complex. The buildings are multi-story and appear to be made of concrete and steel. There are several parking lots with many cars and trucks. The surrounding area includes other buildings and green spaces. The overall impression is of a major industrial or commercial facility.

- Should these uses be defined differently than medical clinics or hospitals
- Zoning by-law regulations must be based on sound planning principles

Discussion Paper 16b: Addiction Recovery Centres (cont'd)
