

COMMONWEALTH HONOUR AWARD

Service Medal

JENNIFER EVANS – GEORGINA

Jennifer is an Examiner in the Society's lifesaving, lifeguarding and first aid programs. She is an Aquatic Supervisor Instructor and a Swim and Lifesaving Instructor Trainer. She holds Society certifications as a Lifesaving Sport Coach and Aquatic Safety Auditor.

Jennifer served as a Member Services representative on the Council of Officers from 2012 to 2014. She has chaired the Society's Rescue Commendations Committee since 2010.

All nominations for rescue recognition pass through Jennifer's hands for assessment of the rescue in terms of the Society's criteria, further research as needed, and recommendations for awards to the Member Services Council. Most recently, Jennifer has developed recognition criteria for meritorious interventions by on-duty lifeguards in life-threatening emergencies.

For her continuing volunteer contribution, the Society recognizes Jennifer with the Service Medal.
