

COMMONWEALTH HONOUR AWARD

Bar to Service Medal

JEFFREY MCCURDY – MARKHAM

Jeff is a Lifesaving, First Aid, and National Lifeguard Instructor Trainer and a Lifesaving Sport Coach Trainer.

Jeff served as a member of the Lifesaving Sport Council's Coaching Committee from 2011 to 2016, and as a member of the Athlete Representative Committee from 2014 to 2016. Since 2013, Jeff has chaired the Sport Council's Technical Committee and represented Lifesaving Sport on the Society's Council of Officers.

With a passion for all things lifesaving-sport-related, Jeff has extensive competition experience as a host, organizer, and official. He has helped host six provincial championships in Tillsonburg and has committed to hosting the Canadian Pool Lifesaving Championships in Markham for the next five years.

Jeff is extremely knowledgeable and always willing to share his expertise in the hopes of creating more sport lovers like himself.

For his continuing leadership, the Lifesaving Society recognizes Jeff with the Bar to Service Medal.

COMMONWEALTH HONOUR AWARD

Service Commendation

MARTA WRZAL – RICHMOND HILL

Marta is a SEE Auditor Instructor and a Lifesaving, First Aid, and National Lifeguard Examiner. She is an Instructor Trainer in the Society's Swim and Lifesaving programs and holds lifesaving sport certifications as an Official and Coach.

Marta has served as Vice Chair for the Society's York region since 2012 and participated in four Area Chair Conferences. Marta handles communication and liaison with local affiliates and volunteer leadership personnel, finds qualified Examiners, and manages the area's Lifesaving Sport Reps.

Marta played a key role in the development and communication of the area's Examiner improvement program. As a chair on the York Region Aquatic Council, Marta ensures the Society is well represented and its programs and services well promoted.

For her energetic commitment to its drowning prevention mission, the Society recognizes Marta with the Service Commendation.
