Subject: Address Change

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to request information on the process necessary to have my residential address changed. Don Hamilton provided your contact information and suggested that you could point me in the right direction.

I currently own the property at 4444 Elgin Mills Road East. I purchased the house approximately four years ago. During that time, I have had a number of my Chinese friends decline invitations to my house. At first I did not draw the connection to the address, however as the number of people refusing to visit my house increased significantly, I enquired and was informed that the house number was unlucky.

I have no intention of selling the property and as a result, would like to have my friends feel comfortable when they are invited. The situation has become increasingly awkward.

The properties on either side of my house are numbered 4428 and 4478. As a result, there is plenty of room to make a change without disrupting the order of the numbers on the street. If possible, I would like to change the address from 4444 to 4438.

It would be appreciated if you could advise on the steps necessary to initiate this process.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Allan Dorfman
