What is Sports Day

- Sports Day in Canada on Saturday, November 30, 2013 is a national celebration of sport, from grassroots to high-performance levels, in communities across the country.
- Sports Day in Canada is presented by RBC, CBC Sports, ParticipACTION and True Sport and is guided by a committee of national sporting organizations and their networks of coaches, athletes and enthusiasts across the country.
- It's an opportunity for all Canadians to celebrate the power of sport to build community, fortify our national spirit and facilitate healthy, active living

Markham selected by ParticiP ACTION as one of seven communities across Canada to host the RBC –
Learn to Play Zone

Engaging the Community In Markham

- The Planning committee lead by Recreation staff is working with the following community sport partners in coordinating the activities for the day;
- Joy Ride 150 • Markham Badminton Federation
- YMCA • Toronto Rock Lacrosse Club
- Running Room • Australian Football Association
- Markham Gymnastics Club • KICKS Dance Studio
- Markham Kendo Club • Myungs Taekwondo
- Dynamic Martial Arts • Markham Ringette

Sport Celebration Day in Markham

In celebration of RBC Sports Day in Canada, a national event celebrating the power of sport, Markham invites you to try a variety of sports and activities for the whole family – from table tennis and Aussie X floor ball to taekwondo and swimming – FREE*.

Sport is a fun and relaxing way to get physical activity on a regular basis, make friends, build relationships and support your mental and emotional health.

So let's get out and play together!

Watch for event details on markham.ca, Facebook and Twitter, and on our City page in your local paper.

Brought to you by these Healthy Community Partners!
